Regularly Scheduled Positions

_____ Summer Class Assistant: Help Audubon teachers with a wide variety of weekday summer learning programs for school-age children. Volunteer shifts are weekly; mornings or afternoons throughout the summer. We send information in March. These positions fill quickly. Students 12 and older and any teachers are especially welcome.

_____ Admission Booth: Greet visitors and collect hiking fees. Four hour shifts, once a month throughout the year, Saturday or Sunday. Training provided for this easy but important job. You must be able to commit to the schedule. Students 16+

Special events for 2010: This puts you on the mail list for the events you check.

_____ March 27 Pancake breakfast. Serve food to preschool families.

_____ April 18 Earth Day. Help with canoes, crafts, cake cutting.

_____ May 22 Garlic Mustard Day. Yank out as much garlic mustard as you can! OK for families.

_____ October 16 Saturday Birdseed sale. Process orders, make phone calls.

_____ October 30 Saturday Halloween Hikes. Lead hikes at night, crafts. Theme is Children's Books.

_____ November 6 Saturday Extreme Raptor day. Info table, sell cookies, crafts, photo help, more.

_____ other events. 2-4 hour shift on day of the event. 13+

Drop-in positions

_____ Land Stewards: Assist staff with a wide variety of invasive species control, native planting, and landscaping. This is a wonderful learning opportunity about plants native to Wisconsin woods, prairies and wetlands. Dress for the weather with tennis shoes or hiking boots. Please be prompt. Eat breakfast before you come. We work on Saturdays from 9:30-12noon all year long. Join adults during the summer and school holidays on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings from 9 to noon. Once we have your application in hand, just come when you have a free morning. For high school and college age students.

_____ Artisans: Perform various tasks to maintain the buildings and grounds. Light construction, fences, decks, bridges, woodworking, painting, and general nature center upkeep. Good for Eagle Scout projects. We have a complete workshop in the building. Available by appointment. For high school and college age students.
